KEEPING UP TO DATE

JUNE NEWS

June was another busy month for the Union Hall members. Topping the list of great events was the The Casco Bay Tumblers show on June 22. The band was dynamic and very tuned into an audience who loved to participate in great round dances and lively music.

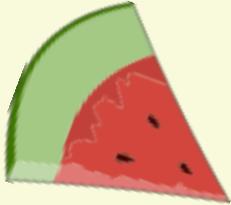

The foundation work under the stage was completed quickly by Alan Williams. We are now waiting for some good weather so he can straighten out the granite in the front of the building.

The "windowman" installed the storms and screens on the hall and the windows were reglazed and painted. Some additional painting was done on the stage trim and stairs leading to the stage. The floor was finally finished with the top coat of oil paste.

Great Tradition Returns

The Vienna Historical Society plays coming at the end of July will be their usual good time. This home grown event features Mt. Vernon, and Vienna playwrights and a great cast of the community players. "Loving/Minister/Argues/Boundaries" is a series of 4 short and slightly related plays about how each of us encounter new people, new generations, and new experiences. True to the tradition of Vienna Historical Society plays, they contain a love story and a run-in with people from away, as well as local gossip and disagreement." The director/writer is Cheryl Herr-Rains. Beverly Wight Smith of Mt. Vernon also offers her expertise with a fun filled play. Don't miss this great summer event.
