SECOND ANNUAL WINTER REVELS

Through the dark, snowy nights of December a great light will shine as the Vienna Union Hall opens it's doors to the public for the second annual "Winter Revels"! Revels has long been a tradition in the Mt. Vernon/Vienna area bringing together locals and newcomers for an evening of music, humor, family and a feeling of community that is unlike any other. Hot cider and treats compliment the evening.

This year the hall offers an impressive lineup of local talent including vocalist Dan Sorensen, one of the founding members of the Cantata Singers in Boston and tenor soloist for 17 seasons, and throughout the 1960's and 1970's, brass music from the "Sunday Project", classical flute and piano, a children's readers theater and finally a fun time with comic Michael Trautman of Portland, ME.

Michael Trautman has been "variously identified as a visual comic, performance artist, new vaudevillian, mime (gasp), physical comedian, storyteller, magician, and fool, he claims only to be a clown...and not a very traditional clown at that. He has appeared in such prestigious venues as the New York International Festival of Clown Theater, Festival D'Ete in Quebec, the General Jackson Showboat at Opryland USA, the Just For Laughs Festival in Montreal, and The Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. He was featured on WOW! The Most Awesome Acts On Earth, an ABC Television Special, and The Statler Brothers Show on TNN." He has performed in theaters from The Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts (Washington, DC), The Michael J. Fox Theatre (Vancouver, BC) to the Portland Stage Company (Maine) and now at the Vienna Union Hall (Vienna, ME).

FOOD BANK FUNDRAISER

Jamie Marquis has organized a wonderful December event at the Union Hall. On Sunday, December 14, from 2-4:30 PM, the Gawler Sisters and other local musicians gather for an open mic concert to benefit the local food bank. The event is free and open to the public although donations of food and cash for the food bank and the hall heating fund will be collected at the door.

Take a little time out of a busy winter schedule and stop by the hall for a fun afternoon of music and good company.

VOLUNTEERS

As always, we are in need of new volunteers. Come to a meeting or contact us through email or call Marianne at 293-2674 if you are willing to donate some time.

WINTER BREAK

The Newsletter and the Union Hall events will be taking a winter break. Over the winter we may have some fundraisers and we are hoping to offer the second "Melt the Snow Ball" in March at UMF to raise funds for the 2015 season. Thank you to everyone for your support throughout 2014. We hope to see you again in 2015!
