Spring Season Starts

Welcome to season eight of the Vienna Union Hall's eclectic mix of plays, music and dance. As snow slowly melts and the light is longer and stronger, members of the Union Hall Association will be busy preparing the Hall for one more season of entertainment.

This year all advance tickets to the musical events will be available online at the following link: Tickets.

Tickets for the plays and Bearnstow performances will be sold at the door.

Following is the lineup for the 2019 season. The Kick-off performance by the Katahdin Valley Boys is often sold out so get your tickets early for this show.

Volunteers Needed

The number of volunteer workers for the Union Hall has been consistently dwindling over the years. The Hall is in desperate need of more help in order to keep up the type of programming that we have been offering over the past eight years. Please consider lending us a hand so we can continue into the future. Volunteers are welcome from any town, anywhere!
