PARKER POND WATERSHED SURVEY RESULTS NOW AVAILABLE

In 2011, a watershed survey of Parker, David and Tilton Ponds was conducted by the 30 Mile River Watershed Association, in partnership with the Basin, David and Tilton Ponds Association; the Parker Pond Association; the Kennebec County Soil and Water Conservation District; the Maine Department of Environmental Protection; the towns of Chesterville, Fayette, Mount Vernon and Vienna; and many trained volunteers. The purpose of this survey was to identify areas of erosion that deliver sediment into these lakes through stormwater runoff. Sediment carries nutrients that degrade water quality and this polluted runoff is one of the biggest threats to our lakes.

Survey teams visited all developed properties and roads of participating landowners within these three ponds' watersheds, collecting data on the type of land use, a description of the problem, and the level of impact. Thank you to all Vienna volunteers and Parker Pond landowners who participated.

In total, teams identified 83 sites that are impacting or have the potential to impact water quality, and made specific recommendations for how each site could be mitigated. More than half of the sites were found in residential areas, and the majority of those could be fixed easily at low cost. Twenty-three sites were associated with private roads, and these sites tended

FROM THE PLANNING BOARD

APRIL 25, 2012

At 6:15 PM the Board conducted a site visit at the Ljunggren property in Vienna village (tax map 10 lot 81), where regular members Lionel Laliberte and Waine Whittier and Creston Gaither met with Matt Dunn and his contractor, Bruce Dunn; Matt would like to have a second story bathroom built over the existing bathroom, and to have a dormer built on the higher existing roof; no change is proposed to the existing ell or the easterly end of the structure. No increase to the existing floor area is proposed.

Matt's mailing address is: P.O. Box 148, Mt Vernon, ME 04352.

The regular meeting convened at the Town House at 7:00 PM. Other regular members present were Alan Williams and Ed Lawless.

Minutes of the March 28 meeting were read and accepted.

Jim and Kathy Meader appeared to discuss the existing camp on their Flying Pond parcel (tax map 10 lot 104 - F). The existing camp is within 12 or 17 feet of the pond. The Shoreland Zoning Ordinance (SZO) rules for the expansion of non-conforming structures (Sect. 12.C.(1). were reviewed. Jim presented a sketch of the existing structure. It appears that if the existing sheds were removed about 500+ sf could be added to the existing structure. It was agreed that a site visit would be required for the Board to determine with certainty what will be permissible. Thus no formal action was taken.

Creston will check on the structure's flood hazard zone status. Jim says he has a plumbing permit for the existing septic system.

Matt Dunn's proposal was discussed. As the structure lies within the Shoreland Zone, the Board made findings of fact as per Section 16.D. of the SZO, found this proposal conforming, and voted to authorize the issuance of a SZO permit for the proposed work upon receipt of a valid plumbing permit.

Creston noted that he expects to miss the Board's May 23 meeting.

The meeting adjourned at 7:45 PM

JUNE 27, 2012

At 6:30 PM Board members Alan Williams, Nanou Laliberte, and Ed Lawless and Creston Gaither met with contractor Ryan Jones at the Wayne and Margot Cliff property on Flying Pond. depicted on tax map 11 as lots V -25 and -26 to consider the Cliffs' proposal to raise the existing cabin by 3 feet and put a foundation under it. Ryan was asked to provide a letter from the Cliffs authorizing him to act on their behalf.

The regular meeting convened at the Town House at 7:00 PM with the aforesaid members in attendance. Alan was elected Acting Chairman in Waine Whittier's absence. Creston did not have the minutes from the April meeting and their approval was therefore postponed. It was noted that there was no quorum, and thus no formal meeting, in May, though Waine and Alan met briefly and visited Jim and Kathy Meader's site on Flying Pond (tax map 10 lot 104).

The Board discussed the Cliff's proposal and made findings of fact as per Section 16.D. of the Shoreland Zoning Ordinance (SZO), found the proposal conforming, and voted to authorize Creston to issue the usual SZO permit by letter upon receipt of a letter authorizing Ryan to act as the owners' agent; and subject to the usual requirements regarding erosion control, silt fencing, etc.

Creston outlined concerns raised by assessor John Sexton concerning the permit issued to the Kralovics in July of last year for a wheelchair ramp. Since this permit has something of the character of a variance, and conditions the continued existence of the ramp on a continuation of use or ownership by Barbara Kralovic, John believes it should be recorded. Creston will check to see if a copy with original signatures has been retained and will try to have it recorded.

The meeting adjourned at 7:15 PM

VIENNA RECORD

FROM THE VIENNA HEALTH OFFICER:
SENIOR DRIVING

Nearly everybody over 45 has probably worried about a elderly parent or other loved one's safety when driving. Crashes caused by older drivers are a significant public health issue, especially in Maine with its oldest median age of all the states, and its predominantly rural environment that lacks much public transportation. In those rural areas, like Vienna, nearly 20% of the population is already over 65, which the rest of the country is not predicted to achieve until 2030. So seniors who live here must have a car and be able to drive to get most things done they need to do, from shopping, to medical care, to entertainment, despite recent local improvements in those and other services. And we hear reports of crashes involving elderly drivers constantly in the news recently. So what are the issues and what can be done to diminish the risks without isolating our seniors?

Here are national fatality rates per mile driven by driver age group (graph #1) As you can see, at about age 70, these rates start to climb from younger adult rates but don't exceed the teen rates until age 85. But not all this fatality increase is from increased crash rates; at least half is because older people are more fragile and break more easily in a crash. But older Mainers do have an increased rate of crashes with increasing age beyond about age 70 per mile driven (graph #2), though barely higher rates per driver, because most older drivers decrease and limit their driving more than younger adults.

Not everybody ages at the same rate, so age group definitions are unfairly limiting. And not all medical limitations prevent driving, at least with limits (fewer miles, day time, no throughways, in local areas, etc.). Older drivers with intact cognition usually self-impose those restrictions; the most troublesome group are those with early dementia, who are likely to progress over 1-2 years and must rely sometimes (not always) on others to suggest or impose limitations for their own and others safety. But the reality is that the average person has to retire from driving 5-10 years before they die. So we all need to plan for how to recognize and decide when its time.

Drivers themselves and their families must be vigilant to recognize serious limitations as they develop, like hitting the gas instead of the brake, minor or major car damage/crashes, failing to stop for stop signs or stop lights, trouble making left turns, driving too fast or slowly for the traffic conditions, and family feeling it is not safe for others (like grandchildren) to ride with the senior driver (hartfordauto.thehartford.com/UI/Downloads/FamConHtd.pdf). Family members can check by riding with or following the senior driver, or, if there is doubt, encourage self-screening with a very helpful on-line series of tests from the American Automobile Association called Road-wise Review (<http://seniordriving.aaa.com/evaluate-your-driving-ability/self-rating-tool>). Sometimes a road test with an occupational therapy department driving tester or with the Bureau of Motor Vehicles (BMV) may be necessary and can be suggested by the driver's doctor on the BMV form usually filled out when there are potential medical issues. In the rare case where a senior driver appears impaired but will not engage in evaluation, anybody can report their concerns to the BMV, neighbor, family member, doctor or police. This will precipitate a re-evaluation.

And finally, to make the transition easier, planning for how the retired senior driver can get along without driving is crucial to making it possible. The Independent Transportation Network, which originated in Portland, now has programs all over the country and in other cities in Maine whereby seniors can get transportation on-demand in exchange for having donated their car, or they or their family having volunteered time. But in rural areas, the local Area Agency on Aging, churches, friends, and the rare public transportation systems may be all that is available. Rarely leaving the old homestead and moving to where such services are more available may be necessary.

These are scary but important issues, best confronted directly when they appear, or someone can get hurt. Drivers, families and friends proactively need to evaluate and prepare for driver retirement when and if it is finally necessary.

to be larger erosion problems with greater impacts on water quality. The complete survey results (containing no information to identify landowners), including recommendations for next steps, are available at www.30mileriver.org.

Fixing the erosion sites identified in this survey will require efforts by individuals, road associations, municipal officials, lake associations and the 30 Mile River Watershed Association.

Paying attention to run-off problems and identifying sites in need of work should be continual activities of those interested in protecting these lakes. This survey provided a snapshot of the situation of the surveyed areas at a particular time; new erosion sites develop, especially after heavy rain or snowmelt.

Part of the mission at the 30 Mile River Watershed Association is to provide support to landowners in addressing erosion problems that are having an impact on water quality. One service we offer is our Youth Conservation Corps, which provides free labor to landowners to reduce erosion and runoff. We are still accepting project requests for this summer season. We also offer free camp road maintenance workshops and planning assistance to road associations and other private road owners.

For more information about all of these programs, please visit our website www.30mileriver.org or contact us at info@30mileriver.org or 670-7298.

Funding for the watershed survey of Parker, David and Tilton Ponds was provided in part by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency under Section 319 of the Clean Water Act and was administered by the Maine Department of Environmental Protection in partnership with EPA.

4TH ANNUAL 30 MILE RIVER PADDLE TREK ON AUGUST 11TH

This year will mark the fourth annual 30 Mile River Watershed Association Paddle Trek on Saturday, August 11th. The trek is much anticipated, with paddlers joining for all or part of the 15-mile paddle from Mt. Vernon Village to Wayne Village, traveling through many of the lakes that form the “30 Mile River.” Beginning at Minnehonk Lake in Mt. Vernon (starting at 7:00 a.m.), the trip route continues down Hopkins Pond, Hopkins Stream, Taylor Pond, Echo Lake and its Mill Pond, Lovejoy Pond, Jennings Stream, Pickerel Pond, and Pocasset Lake, ending in Wayne (usually close to 3:00 p.m.) just in time for ice cream. People of all ages and skill level enjoy this yearly trek. The trip is split into four parts, allowing the option of paddling one, two, three or all four parts. Some parts of the journey require a person to portage their boat, which means they must pick up their canoe or kayak and carry it from one body of water to another because of a dam or other impasse. It is not every day that people are given the opportunity to paddle this route. The owners of the property between the lakes have generously given permission for the paddlers to portage through on this journey, not for future trips by those doing it on their own, making this a very special yearly trip. The event is free but donations are encouraged and accepted. Pre-registration is required and space is limited so sign up early at www.30mileriver.org. We hope you will join us on the journey!
